

TP 69

INDEPENDENT 1803

The first of 400 R-10 type subway cars built after World War II by American Car & Foundry poses for its portrait at the builder's plant. These cars, delivered in 1948 and 1949, were intended for joint Independent-BMT service but were used initially on the New York City built Independent Lines.

American Car & Foundry photo - E. W. Anderson Collection

STAMP

POST CARD

Published by Audio-Visual Designs, P.O. Box 24, Earleton, N.Y. 12058

166270